Laura Blaul, Fire Marshall for the Orange County Fire Authority will be presenting an informative summary of all the duties associated with the Fire Marshall's office which would apply to most jurisdictions. Frequently mistaken as only a fire plan review agency, the Fire Marshall's office has a long list of time consuming and technically involved functions; many of which we may not be aware of. Understanding these can serve to enhance the working relationships of building officials and fire marshals in all of our jurisdictions.
