

SEAOSC Seminar —

Emerging Trends in Structural Concrete

Saturday, Oct. 9, 2010 • 8 am - Noon

The Grand Event Center, Long Beach, California

Topics to be covered include:

- “Is Formwork Really That Important? — From a Self-performing General Contractor’s Experience”

By Gordon Crane, Bomel Construction Company

- “Practical Design and Detailing of Precast-Double-T Parking Structures”

By Amer Soudani, P.E., Hanson Structural Precast, Irwindale, CA

- “Voided Slab — A New Floor System for Buildings”

By Mike Mota, P.E., CRSI

- “From Prescriptive to Performance — What Engineers Should Know About Current Ready-Mix Concrete Specifications”

By Ed Kripavicius, Standard Concrete Products

Sponsored by CRSI CNCA PCMAC

CRSI will donate a new publication entitled “Detailing Corner — Concrete International Compilation”
to the first 50 registrants.

SEAOSC Seminar:
Emerging Trends in Structural Concrete
Saturday, Oct. 9, 2010

Registration: 7:30 a.m., Seminar: 8 a.m. - Noon
 Grand Event Center, 4101 E. Willow St., Long Beach, CA 90815

(Circle the amount applicable to your registration.)

Cost	Before Oct. 2	After Oct. 2
SEA Member	$150	$200
Non-member	$300	$350

Advance registration required no later than Oct. 2.
Non-Members are encouraged to attend at Member rate by completing a membership application at www.seaosc.org before Oct. 2. Attendees will receive four professional development credits.

Three ways to register:

❶ Register online at www.seaosc.org
 (Members: Log in using Username and Password or Member Discount)

❷ Fax completed form with credit card information to (562) 692-3425.

❸ Mail Completed form with check made out to SEAOSC to 5360 Workman Mill Rd., Whittier, CA 90601.

Note: Confirmations will be issued in response to online reservations only.

Name

Phone

Fax

SEA Member Non-member

Credit Card Number

Expiration

Amount

Pin number (last 3-4 digits on back of card)

Legibly print name on credit card

Complete Billing address including zip code

Signature